

Stranger

How Is this staring from the other side of the mirror
Is it really me
Or just my ego
I'm Invded by this overwhelming fright
I can't justify
Suddenly i start doubting everything i ve ever been told i was before

Chorus
Ooo I'm a stranger to my own self

Verse 2
The rules the laws the principles went crumbling down
And those I used to know before I are new to me now
I 'm lost in the fogs of chemicals
In a life that's getting more materiel
My flesh is taking over
How can my heart get sober if my soul revolves

Chorus ///
Artificial Superficial

Chorus
Oh
I m a stranger to my own self
